

College/Scholarship Information Cape Fear Academy March 10-26, 2010

This information will be updated weekly for parents and seniors of Cape Fear Academy. Please make note of the deadlines included. Check the new College News bulletin board by the stairs for more information! New information will appear in red.

CollegeWeekLive Spring – CollegeWeekLive is the world's largest college fair, and it's free and online! The next fair is scheduled for March 24th and 25th. Schools include University of Florida and Georgia Institute of Technology to name a few. Admissions officials will be available to chat live, and keynote speakers will discuss topics such as financial aid, the admissions process, test preparation and scholarships. CollegeWeekLive is in partnership with the US Department of Education and The ACT. This is a great opportunity for juniors! To register, visit www.collegeweeklive.com.

Attention all senior men: Every young man is required to register with Selective Service within 30 days of his 18th birthday. It is your legal and civic responsibility...and it's the law! Men can register online at www.sss.gov. Don't forget!!!

College Information:

NC State's Engineering Open House – This event is scheduled for March 27th, from 9:00 a.m. until 1:00 p.m. Faculty will be available to answer questions. Lab tours and demonstrations will be held, as well. Visit www.engr.ncsu.edu and click on "Engineering Open House" under "Featured Events" for information, maps, and online registration.

PGA Golf Management (Campbell University) – This program is having a Visitation Day on Monday, April 12, 2010 for juniors and seniors. Sign up by going to www.campbell.edu/pgagm. See Ms. Copenhaver for a brochure.

Presbyterian College Fellows – If you have an interest in Presbyterian College and have 120/1200 on the PSAT/SAT (Reading and Math) or 27 on the ACT and an excellent academic record, see Ms. Copenhaver before March 1, 2010 for a scholarship opportunity.

Randolph College (VA) Spring Visitation Days – March 20th and April 17th are the scheduled dates. For more information, visit www.randolphcollege.edu/visit.

Virginia Military Institute (VMI) – Open House dates are: February 19-20; March 5-6; and April 9-10. Register online at www.vmi.edu/openhouseregistration.

Scholarship Information:

2010 Civitan Scholarship – These are one-time scholarships that will range in value from $1,000-$2,500 and are designed to be used to further education of the student's choice. Criteria include: scholastic ability, citizenship, leadership, service, financial need. See Ms. Copenhaver for an application. Deadline to apply: April 6, 2010.

CFCC Foundation Merit Scholarship – Ten $1,800 scholarships will be given to area students who demonstrate academic excellence. Electronic applications are available at cfcc.edu/foundation/scholarships or see Ms. Copenhaver for a paper application.

Kohl's Kids Who Care Scholarship – This scholarship opportunity is for students in 9th through 12th grades who have done great work to benefit the community. Awards range from $50 gift cards to $10,000. If you are interested in being nominated, please let Ms. Copenhaver know. Visit www.kohlskids.com for information. Deadline for nominations: March 15, 2010.

Wofford Scholars – Juniors interested in being nominated for this program must see Ms. Copenhaver before April 1st. Criteria include: outstanding academic record; SAT score of 1250 (CR / M); ACT score of 28; scholarship; leadership. This is an opportunity to compete for scholarships at Wofford College up to $40,000 per year.

Other Opportunities:

CIEE High School and Gap Year Abroad – Programs are available for summer abroad, study abroad, and gap year abroad in Chile, China, Ireland, Japan, South Korea, and Dominican Republic. Visit www.ciee.org/hsabroad.

My College QuickStart – This is a service offered through College Board. Students can prepare for their futures through review of the PSAT scores, personality tests, and personalized suggestions for colleges, majors and careers. Visit www.collegeboard.com/quick.

ScoreWrite: A Guide to Preparing for the SAT Essay is now available and downloadable online. Visit www.collegeboard.com/scorewrite.

2010 NFIB Young Entrepreneur Award – Are you a budding entrepreneur? Do you have dreams of owning your own business? Visit www.NFIB.com/YEA to apply for the 2010 NFIB Young Entrepreneur Award.

Summer Opportunities:

4-Star Camp at the University of Virginia – This program is for rising juniors and seniors interested in academic enrichment, athletic options, SAT Prep, and weekend excursions to Washington, college tours, and Virginia Beach. Visit www.4StarCamps.com or call 800.334.7827.

Academic Treks and Broadreach – College-accredited summer adventures abroad and educational leadership summer adventures for teens are available. Visit www.gobroadreach.com/webinfo/.

ActionQuest and Lifeworks – These opportunities focus on travel/adventure and community service, respectively. ActionQuest is run aboard a vessel and Lifeworks is primarily land-based. Ms. Copenhaver has a great deal of information on both programs, or visit www.arcademicexpeditions.com.

Boston University Summer Term – These programs provide a preview of college life and an opportunity to get a head start on college. One-week to six-week programs are offered. Visit www.bu.edu/summer/highschool for information.

Bronfman Youth Fellowships in Israel – BYFI will select 26 high school juniors to spend a summer in Israel studying, traveling, and meeting with Israeli leaders. The program is highly selective; however, is it a prestigious and exciting opportunity for students. To apply, visit <http://www.bronfman.org>.

Broyhill Leadership Conference – This leadership training experience for rising 10-12 graders is held at Queens University of Charlotte from June 28-July 2, 2010. Cost is only $220 and students may apply at www.broyhill-leadership.org.

Cambridge College Programme – This is held at the University of Cambridge in England for high achieving high school scholars from July 22nd-August 11th. Visit the 2010 Programme at www.cambridgecollegeprogramme.org/. Information for Oxbridge Academic Programs for rising 9th through 12th grades can be found at www.oxbridgeprograms.com or see Ms. Copenhaver for a catalog. See poster on the bulletin board!

Creative Writing & Scottish Studies Summer Programmes – These 4-week residential experiences at St. Andrews University is for students who have completed 10th grade and beyond. For information, visit www.st-andrews.ac.uk/scottishstudiessummerprogramme or www.st-andrews.ac.uk/creativewritingsummerprogramme.

Davidson July Experience – This is a 3-week experience for rising juniors and seniors that will be held from July 4-24, 2010. You will have a college experience at a top liberal arts college. (Courses will not receive high school or college credit.) Visit www.davidson.edu/julyexperience for complete information on admissions and programs, or see Ms. Copenhaver for a brochure.

2010 Design Camp – This summer program, organized by CAM (Contemporary Art Museum) at NC State University College of Design, is to inform students about college study in design. The program is a week-long residential program for rising juniors and seniors. There is also a day camp for rising sophomores and juniors. For more information and an application, visit www.cam.ncsu.edu/designcamp.

Green River Preserve – This is a summer camp for the bright, curious, and creative. Small, co-ed groups travel into the wilderness by foot or float. Explore two different ecosystems of NC (Blue Ridge Expeditions and Outer Banks Expeditions). See Ms. Copenhaver for a brochure or visit www.greenriverpreserve.org for information.

Hollinsummer – Sessions for middle and upper school girls where students take two noncredit classes and live on campus with girls from around the country. See Ms. Copenhaver, call 800.456.9595, or visit www.hollins.edu for information.

Jonathan R. Reynolds Young Writers Workshop – This opportunity is held at Denison University (Ohio) from June 13-20, 2010 for students in grades 10-12. Visit www.denison.edu/english/reynolds.

Juniper Institute for Young Writers – This week of creative writing workshops is for writers who have completed their sophomore, junior, or senior year and is held at the University of Massachusetts Amherst from June 20-26, 2010. Exposure to world-renowned authors is part of the program. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. If you would like to attend, see Ms. Copenhaver for a nomination. For details, visit www.umass.edu/juniperyoungwriters.

Middlebury-Monterey Language Academy – A 4-week summer language immersion program is offered in French, German, Arabic, Chinese, and Spanish at Green Mountain College in Vermont and Oberlin College in Ohio. This program is offered for middle and high school students in a summer camp environment. Visit www.mmla.middlebury.edu.

NC State Engineering Summer Programs – Visit www.engr.ncsu.edu/summerprograms for detailed information and an online application. See the College Opportunities bulletin board in the hall for more information.

Oxford Advanced Studies Program – A unique academic and cultural opportunity will be held at Brasenose College, Oxford from July 6-30. See Ms. Copenhaver for a brochure or visit online at <http://www.oasp.ac.uk>.

Pratt Summer Pre-College Program – Immerse yourself in art, design, architecture, creative writing, or critical/visual studies from July 6-July 30. See poster on bulletin board and visit www.pratt.edu/prostudies.

Pre-Collegiate Summer Program in Early American History (The College of William & Mary) – This is a program for rising juniors and seniors where students will earn 4 hours of college credit. Two 3-week programs are offered. Deadline to apply: April 22, 2010. For information and applications, see Ms. Copenhaver, or visit www.wm.edu/niahd.

Rising Star at SCAD – This 5-week residential program offers advanced rising high school seniors the opportunity to earn college credit. Students may enroll in two college courses and have the chance to build or enhance their visual arts portfolios. Apply at www.scad.edu/risingstar.

SCAD Summer Seminars 2010 – One-week residential program in Atlanta and Savannah are designed for students who have completed grades 9-11. Students have individualized instruction and access to state-of-the-art facilities. If interested, you must be nominated by your teacher by April 1, 2010 (Ms. Copenhaver has nomination materials). Call 800.869.7223 or join the SCAD Summer Seminar Facebook group at www.scad.edu/sssfacbook.

Sewanee Environmental Institute Pre-college Field Studies Experience – This opportunity is for rising juniors and seniors who are passionate about the outdoors and who want to advance their knowledge of the environment. The camp is held on the campus of University of the South (Tennessee) from June 27th-July 10th. Visit <http://sei.sewanee.edu/programs/precollege>.

Spirit Ocean Adventure – A summer sailing expedition aboard the Spirit of South Carolina from Charleston to Boston for ages 15-18. See Ms. Copenhaver for a brochure or visit www.spiritoceanadventure.com.

Summer at Georgetown 2010 – The program is designed to give highly motivated students the opportunity to earn college credit and advance their skills through a variety of learning experiences lasting from 8 days to 10 weeks. Thirteen programs are open for enrollment and students are admitted on a rolling basis. Early applications are encouraged due to the competitive nature of the program. Visit www.summergeorgetown.edu/hoyas for information.

Summerfuel – Civic engagement and leadership program – This program gives student leaders an opportunity to think critically and creatively about societal challenges and promotes socially responsible leadership and is held on the campuses of Stanford and Yale. The curriculum focuses on knowledge, analysis, persuasion, and implementation. For information, call 800.752.2250 or visit www.asaprograms.com.

Summer Institute for the Gifted – Residential sessions for students in grades 4-11 will be held at Amherst College, Bryn Mawr College, Emory University, UC Berkeley, UCLA, University of Texas at Austin and Vassar College. Princeton University and Dartmouth College will be available to students in grades 7-11. For complete information, call (866) 303-4744 or visit www.giftedstudy.org.

Summer Study Programs – These opportunities are held at Penn State, University of Colorado, University of Vermont and The Sorbonne in Paris. Visit www.summerstudy.com or see Ms. Copenhaver for catalog.

Vanderbilt Summer Academy – Variety of outstanding programs for talented youth from rising grades 8-12. Visit www.ptv.vanderbilt.edu for information, catalog, and application.

Wake Forest University's LENS Program – Learn, Experience, Navigate, Solve: 36 students will follow a program of study based on a current global challenge (this year's challenge is sustainability). The program will be held from July 11-31, 2010. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis. Visit www.wfu.edu/lens.

Wilderness Ventures – This is a summer opportunity held in Jackson Hole, Wyoming each summer. Students enjoy all the outdoor adventures of backpacking, mountaineering, rock climbing, whitewater rafting, etc. Visit www.wildernessventures.com for more information.

New in the College Center: Guide to Summer Camps and Summer Schools – 2010/2011

This handbook has 850 pages of residential summer programs for students with opportunities from academic, music, and art to sports and recreation. Special sections on programs for students with special needs are included, as well.

Put these dates on your calendar!

SAT
www.collegeboard.com/sat-register
May 5 Register by March 25
June 5 Register by April 29

ACT
www.actstudent.org
April 10 Register by March 5
June 12 Register by May 7